Team Number:	119-96096
Challenge:	Laugh Art Loud – SL
Affiliate:	Massachusetts
Organization:	Lynnfield Public Schools – The Team with the Dragon
Award Kind:	Renaissance
Recipient:	Entire Team
Presentation:	Team Challenge
Synopsis:	Props so powerful, detailed, and unusually made that the UT Theatre Department intercepted them from a dumpster death.
Text:	This team's Presentation transported the Appraisers into the depths of a cave through intricately crafted stone walls from paper bags, armor from plastic utensils, and stalactites carved from stacks of cardboard. Their incredibly designed costumes left our eyes as wide as the Manga characters on stage, while a stained glass dragon window served as a portal to the mortal world. The team's multidimensional Presentation and inspirational interpretation of their team-selected artwork ascended to the next level. Employing magnets and recycled iron filings, words magically appeared in the Sorceress's "Book of Spells," the Caption Contraption. To top things off, a ten foot, peace-loving, flower-breathing dragon dominated the stage and our thoughts so incredibly that words could not do it justice.

Presentation:	Team Challenge
Synopsis:	A compelling Presentation that immediately drew us into a lonely child's imaginary world of colorful monsters.
Text:	This team took an empty stage and enveloped it with a sea of black and white, bold patterns accented by splashes of bright blues, pinks, yellows and green. The contrast between the striking designs and wild colors created a magnificent, imaginary world where a main character escapes when his reality leaves him lonely and sad. Through his adventures with his monstrous, ten-foot-tall imaginary friends, he found the confidence to befriend his bullying tormentor and find a way out of his solitary existence. The conclusion of this compelling tale was met with a deafening silence followed by thunderous, well-deserved applause by all who witnessed it. Using a combination of wild set pieces and costumes with moving and impactful acting abilities, this team left the audience enraptured with their creativity and powerful message. It was a truly breath-taking Presentation.
